LEARNING

Group Activity: 'I Got This Hat'

1. Teacher leads a whole class discussion about students' favourite hat.
 - Can you describe your favourite hat?
 - When do you wear it?
 - Why is it your favourite hat?
 - Is there a hat that you would like to have?
 - We're going to watch and listen to a story about hats.
2. Teacher shows students pictures of Different Hats.
 - Where do you think this hat came from?
 - If you had this hat, who might have given it to you?
 - Where might you wear a hat like this?

Teacher Note: not all pictures of hats need to be shown.

3. Students watch I Got This Hat Auslan without sound.

Reflective Questions:

- What was the storyteller doing? Why?
 - Did you understand what the story was about even though you couldn't hear the words? Why? How?
 - What action did the storyteller do between each hat? What did it show you or tell you?
 - What was your favourite hat in the story?
 - Let's take a moment to think about an action for your own favourite hat.
4. Students are given 2-3 minutes to experiment with an action for their own favourite hat or a hat they would like to have (as indicated in Step 1).
 5. Teacher selects 5-10 students to demonstrate their action one at a time in front of the class.
 6. After each student, the rest of the class reflects if they could tell what type of hat was indicated by the action.

	Independent Activity: My Favourite Hat 1. Students are directed to draw their favourite hat, or a hat they would like to have. Class could also do this activity at their desk to promote inclusion. The students could verbalise the Auslan action in terms of how it shows the movement selected. Allow students to interpret actions in the warm-up activity to suit their mobility. Use assistive technology to draw their hat in the Independent Activity. A support student could draw the hat from a given description and assist with the students’ performance of their digital ‘page’ for the class story. Vision: Provide larger print versions of resources. Students can describe their favourite hat by using talk to text. A selection of hats could be in the classroom and students could select a hat to describe by touch. Teacher or support student/adult provide hand-to-hand direction with Auslan and the students digital ‘page’ for the class story. Yes/No question response visuals can be used to respond to questions. Hearing: Students may need support through further visuals eg Visuals for sections of lesson.
