

Big Idea

Exploring Music and Movement through a Silent Disco.

Learning Intention

- Students will recognise and respond to different types of music through movement.
- Students will understand how music can be experienced in different ways, including through technology.
- Students will demonstrate basic coordination and rhythmic skills through dance.

