

Big Idea

Exploring Music and Movement through a Silent Disco.

Learning Intention

- Students will explore different genres of music through a silent disco.
- Students will understand the use of technology in music listening and performance.
- Students will express themselves creatively through movement.
- Students will develop an understanding of rhythm and tempo by dancing to various music tracks.

